

Decline In Price Of Food

Noticeable in Both Large And Small Places, Survey By A. P. Discloses

By The Associated Press

The fellow in the small town finds that food costs less today than it did a year ago.

The price drop isn't much. It isn't even as large as in the big cities. But it's enough to mean something when you have to eat every day.

In a survey of 16 small cities, ranging in population from 10,000 to 25,000, the Associated Press found price tags on seven representative food items down 8.2 per cent from last year. A similar survey last week of big cities showed a decline of 9.7 per cent.

Some interesting things turned up in the small city survey. Merchants have followed their big city brothers in offering New Year price slashes, particularly on such items as women's clothing, household appliances and radios.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4.—(P)—A Senate group decided today to find out why prices of bread, lard and soap are still high.

Chairman Maybank (D-SC) said members of the Senate banking committee will seek answers to that question next week.

"We have been hearing so many complaints from farmers about their prices dropping that we decided to find out what's keeping up consumer prices," Maybank said.

The inquiry will be handled by the banking committee's small business subcommittee, which Maybank also heads.

Blame The Weather
The results, the merchants say, have been pretty good. Sales have held up well, and in places where they haven't everyone is inclined to blame the weather.

In Emporia, Kansas, for example, the weather has been so bad many merchants haven't even bothered to offer sales. They know customers preferred to huddle the home firesides. "Business will be better in the spring," a Chamber of Commerce official said.

Women shoppers in the small town store are a little more careful about how and where they spend their money, just as in the big city. A grocer in Griffin, Georgia, said his customers were increasing their buying of canned foods over the more expensive frozen foods.

Laramie, Wyo., merchants said there was more buying on the installment plan instead of cash, especially in household equipment and radios. But they added sales were still good.

Palo Alto, Calif., said a slackening in building had hurt sales of household appliances. More attention to quality was noted in Chanute, Kas. Crowley, La., reported a rash of half-price reductions on men's clothing.

NEW YORK, Feb. 4.—(P)—Increasingly sharp declines in commodity prices in recent days are causing economic prophets to take another look at their forecasts.

Today is the anniversary of last year's big break in commodity prices, and although declines this year have been more gradual, they appear to be gaining momentum and are being watched closely by business leaders for clues to the future.

Most economists and business leaders at the turn of the year predicted 1949 would be a year of general business activity only slightly below 1948.

A.P. Index
However, the commodity price drops of recent days are causing some of them to wonder whether a sharper adjustment may not be at hand.

The Associated Press commodity index of 35 weighted whole sale prices dropped yesterday to 169.40, lowest since Feb. 11, 1947, representing a decline of 3.13 in one week. And over seven points in a month. It compares with 199.93, the starting point of last year's sharp break in commodity prices, and the all-time high of 208.14 on Jan. 9, 1948. The decline from the all-time high is just short of 14 per cent.

Remembered The Baby, Just in Time

POPLAR BLUFF, Feb. 4.—(P)—A young mother struggled to get two small girls and a traveling bag onto a Missouri Pacific bus here last night and finally the three settled down in the bus for a trip to St. Louis. Ten minutes later when the bus driver closed the door and started the motor, the woman suddenly jumped from her seat and exclaimed: "Wait—stop the bus."

She jumped off, ran into the railroad station and presently emerged with a blanket-wrapped bundle, explaining: "I forgot the baby."

Temperatures Below Normal Over Country

Liberating Those Snowbound in Western States

KANSAS CITY, Feb. 4.—(P)—Colder weather moved into Missouri today but without snow, rain and sleet, forecast earlier.

The weather bureau forecast cloudy to partly cloudy skies tonight and Saturday with scattered snow flurries in the north portion Saturday. The low tonight is expected to be around the zero mark in the north to near 20 in the south.

Low readings this morning include one below at St. Joseph and seven above at St. Joseph.

Nation Cold And Wet
By The Associated Press
Most of the nation was cold and wet today. Temperatures generally are below normal over the entire country.

The mid-winter cold snap continued over the north central and western regions with more sub-zero temperatures. The mercury dipped to 27 below zero at Grand Forks, N. D., and it was below zero over most of the Dakotas, Minnesota, Iowa, Nebraska and Montana. Thermometers in Bismarck, N. D., never got above five below all day yesterday and early today dropped to 20 below.

There also were sub-zero readings in Wyoming and Colorado. A fresh fall of snow in Nevada halted the haylift operations for the first time since they started Jan. 24.

Southern Florida's weather continued mild. Miami's 76 was the country's highest mark yesterday.

Mass Operation
OMAHA, Feb. 4.—(P)—History's largest mass bulldozer operation, covering an area bigger than all of New England, New York, Pennsylvania and Delaware, today was credited with liberating 7,846 snowbound persons in 24 hours.

At work under the Fifth army's operation snowbound were 1,183 pieces of heavy equipment. They tackled snowdrifts in 138,880 square miles of disaster area in Nebraska, South Dakota and Wyoming.

The figures, along with accounts of hardship brought on by the worst winter in six decades, came from Maj. Gen. Lewis A. Pick, director of the Fifth Army project.

At Neligh, Neb., a relief crew reached a snowbound farm place, found a wife grieving over the death of her husband. He had died five days earlier, but the widow had been unable to get word to the outside or make funeral arrangements.

Stalin Gets Invitation to Meet Truman in Independence

INDEPENDENCE, Mo., Feb. 4.—(P)—Generalissimo Stalin is going to get a surprise invitation when he checks in at the Kremlin today: An invitation to meet President Truman in the home of an ordinary American citizen.

The invitation was cabled by James W. Stobaugh, 53, veteran employee of Western Union Telegraph company. He said it only cost him 16.12 and read:

"May I respectfully invite you to meet with President Truman in my home at 1228 Cedar avenue, Independence, Mo., a typical American home in the most typical of all American communities? Here in this home town of our honored president, away from glitter and pomp where the only armed force in evidence is the

Protest Tax on Stored Grains As Tangible

Law is Not New, Says Chairman of Tax Commission

PALMYRA, Mo., Feb. 4.—(P)—Three hundred Marion county farmers registered protests yesterday to what they said is the state tax commission's "predecessor breaking" action in assessing farmers' feed grains in storage as tangible property.

They agreed to circulate petitions of protest to the commission and accepted the voluntary offer of a Palmyra attorney, Robert E. Brown, to assist them with the idea of obtaining some measures of relief.

Brown said the assessment of stored grains is legal under sections 4 and 5 of House bill 471 of the 1945 laws. The law also applies to grains under government loan and sealed.

Should Have Been Warned

"But our complaint is that some warning should have been given the farmers who have harvested their biggest crops, especially of corn, in 40 years," Brown said.

"The assessment is legal, no disputing that," Brown said. "But I know some farmers who have from $10,000 to $20,000 worth of corn stored on their farms. This is a hardship on farmers not contemplating such a tax. We simply want to protest the suddenness of this action and want to try to get some definite relief, perhaps deferment for another year or so."

"I think these farmers want to know why this law is being brought up at this time. It looks like an advantage is being taken of them because of their bumper crops."

JEFFERSON CITY, Feb. 4.—(P)—Clarence Evans, chairman of the state tax commission, said here today Marion county farmers weren't the only ones complaining because corn and other grains are taxable as tangible personal property.

Such property has been taxable all along, Evans said. There have been complaints from Mercer and Wayne counties, too, this year.

But the law must be obeyed. Evans said.

The whole controversy swings on the change in assessment time under the 1945 constitution, he explained.

Under the old constitution assessment began in June—when there was little feed, grain and hay in farm lots and granaries. It already had been transformed into feed during the winter feeding season or had been sold.

Changed Now
But now the assessors have to make their investigations in the first months of the year—at the height of the livestock feeding season.

There was no appreciable amount of such feeds left over when the assessor came around years ago. Now, however, the bulk of it is left.

On top of that, Evans explained, the 1948 corn crop in Missouri was the biggest in history. Consequently, there's an extraordinary amount of corn in bins and granaries.

The change in assessment dates has been much publicized.

'Battle of The Flat' is Told

NEW YORK, Feb. 4.—(P)—The Daily News said today that a one-time Philadelphia socialite has turned her lavish Manhattan apartment into an armed fortress and for 11 weeks has resisted attempts by her millionaire husband to enter it.

In a copyrighted story, the News reported that the "battle of the flat" was disclosed in sealed papers filed by Mrs. Edith Maria Reuss Lord, 41, in a separation suit against Robert P. Lord, 45-year-old attorney and manufacturer.

Mrs. Lord, the newspaper said, "recaptured" the apartment by force last November after she, herself, had been barred from it for two months. Since then she has lived there amid bristling guns and burly bodyguards to foil possible counterattacks, the News continued.

The separation papers, said the news, revealed that the beautiful blonde barricaded the apartment door and windows with iron bars, and hired sharp-shooting "storm troops" to discourage possible visits from her estranged mate.

Seven Year Old Sedalia Girl Appreciates 'March of Dimes'

Glenda Sue Reed, seven year old daughter of Mrs. Ida Reed, 605 North Quincy avenue, knows what the "March of Dimes" means. She knows it means that little girls and boys who have been crippled by polio will walk again. Glenda Sue knows because such dimes have helped her.

Two years ago last September when the polio epidemic was so bad in this community, it struck Glenda Sue and left her crippled. She wanted to do things her twin sister, Linda Lou, did, but she couldn't. The "March of Dimes" provided treatment and day by day Glenda Sue seemed to improve. She started to school with Linda Lou at Mark Twain school.

At first it was hard for her to walk with the braces, and when she fell down she couldn't get up by herself. But Linda Lou felt a big responsibility for her sister. She stayed by her side continually. She helped her up when she fell down and now when Glenda Sue falls down she can get up herself. She can run, too, and passed right along into the second grade with Linda Lou and the rest of her class.

She rides to school on a tri-bike, which has done so much to strengthen the muscles of her legs. Even most of these bad days she has gone to school on the tri-bike, her mother said, and added that she wished there was something that she might use with Glenda Sue to develop the muscles of her arms as well as the tri-bike has developed her legs.

Wednesday Mrs. Reed took Glenda Sue to Kansas City again and the specialist there, who had not seen her for the past three months was surprised and pleased at the progress she had made. Now she won't have to wear the braces on her legs any more and no operations will be necessary for a year.

Glenda Sue's mother and twin sister are so happy, but nobody is as happy as Glenda Sue herself for it means that she again can run and play and do the things that other children do.

12-Year-Old Expects Baby

MASON, Mich., Feb. 4.—(P)—Little Mrs. Etta Long, who is 12 years old and expects a baby, says she's "grown up now" and insists on returning to her husband.

Juvenile authorities, who have had the blue-eyed child bride in their custody, pondered that demand today.

To Etta there didn't seem to be any question over the matter. The records showed she and Weldon Long, husky, 23-year-old navy veteran and unemployed sawmill worker, got married last Oct. 22.

"We've never had a home of our own," said Etta. "That would be nice, especially when we're going to have a family now."

Matron Doris Mudgett of the Juvenile Home said a doctor's examination disclosed that Etta has been pregnant three months.

Two Russian Escapes Glad To Reach U. S.

WESTOVER AIRFORCE BASE, Mass., Feb. 4.—(P)—Two Russian Air Force officers who escaped from the Soviet Union by plane landed here today—delighted to reach America.

They took off for America Wednesday noon from Rheinmain, Germany, airfield in a navy VR-3 military air transport plane and landed at Westover at 2 a. m. (EST).

They had a message for American Communists.

Speaking through an interpreter, the fliers, Peter Progov and Aratole Barsov, said:

"Instead of making all their noise they should volunteer to go to Russia for one month. They would be glad to return here and resign from the Communist party."

Stalin Doesn't Want War
They expressed belief that Premier Stalin offered to meet President Truman because the cold war had gotten to a point where it might become serious. Stalin doesn't want war this soon any more.

Asked if they were pleased to be in America, both exclaimed, "Da, da," in their native tongue, before the interpreter could speak for them.

They said they had planned their escape for a year after hearing "pleasant things" about Americans from Russian officers who had contact with U. S. soldiers during the war.

The thing that finally spurred them to fly out of Russia was news of the escape of Madame Kasenkina from Soviet authority in New York. They explained that thrilled them.

Their trip to this country was sponsored by U. S. military authorities.

Injuries Suffered, In Falls on Ice

Mrs. Della Clark, 320 West Fourth street, suffered a severe fracture of the left hip shortly before noon today when she slipped on ice at Fourth street and Osage avenue.

Mrs. Lucille Foster, Lincoln, Mo., was admitted to the hospital this afternoon suffering from a fracture of the seventh rib on the right side, which she received in a fall at Lincoln.

Mrs. Foster is being treated by Dr. D. H. Glenn of Lincoln.

Navy Probably Will be Second To Air Force

Predict Bill Monday Authorizing 70-Group Air Force

By Jack Bell
WASHINGTON, Feb. 4.—(P)—The navy got the word today that it probably is going to have to play second fiddle to the Air Force in Congress.

Indirect notice of this attitude came in the form of "so-what?" reaction among lawmakers to an announcement by Secretary Sullivan that the Navy will have to lay up 72 ships and cut its strength 30,000 men to keep within President Truman's new budget.

This was in direct contrast to the strong sentiment that has grown up in Congress to push Air Force developments far beyond the 48-group set-up proposed by Mr. Truman.

Chairman Vinson (D-Ga.) predicted that the House armed services committee will approve on Monday a bill authorizing a 70-group Air Force.

Sullivan's statement that three aircraft carriers and 12 cruisers, plus lesser ships, will have to be put in moth balls was looked on as a roundabout bid for more funds than the $4,674,000,000 set up in the budget.

Two Democratic members of the senate appropriations committee voiced characteristic reaction.

Senator O'Mahoney (D-Wyo.) told a reporter:

"We've already got the biggest navy in the world. As long as we keep up to snuff on submarine warfare, I don't think we have to worry too much about the budget limits."

Senator Russell (D-Ga.) said Congress is not concerned so much with what ships are being withdrawn from active service as with what ones still will be allowed.

Offset Reductions
In this connection, Secretary Sullivan said the reductions will be offset by addition of 30 ships to the operating fleet. These new ones include 24 destroyer types, two carriers, a heavy cruiser, a light cruiser and two submarines will be added.

This would have the effect of shifting emphasis to lighter vessels adapted to anti-submarine work, a move that apparently was pleasing to many in Congress.

Sullivan's statement that the Navy will have to cut its manpower by 30,000 was seized upon as a new argument against Mr. Truman's request for Universal Military Training.

Senator McClellan (D-Ark.) said "it just doesn't add up to be asking for UMT and cutting the navy personnel at the same time."

Large Crowd at Cooking School

The closing session of the Democrat-Capital's Food Festival School of Cookery, conducted at the Liberty theatre this week by Miss Edalene Stohr drew a capacity crowd with every seat in the theatre taken and a number of women standing in the back, both downstairs and in the balcony.

Assisting Miss Stohr was Miss Doris Keefe, who took the dishes as Miss Stohr completed them ready for cooking and put them on the stove or in the oven. She also gave ideas in garnishing.

Throughout the school Miss Stohr has given helpful suggestions as she prepared meats and pastries for cooking. For gravy she said that water put in a jar first, then adding the flour and shaking would prevent gravy from being lumpy; for meringue the eggs should be beaten well before sugar is added, a little at a time, and then beaten well again after sugar is added so the particles of sugar dissolve; never melt shortening for cake, pie or biscuits; cut the egg whites into cake batter, never beat them; the purple stamp on meat is harmless, only food coloring, and make a hole for meat thermometer before inserting it in the thickest part of the meat.

Peace Of Soul

Among the ten non-fiction best-sellers of 1948 was a book on peace of mind and another on how to stop worrying and start living. The popularity of these books indicates only too clearly that millions of Americans are suffering from spiritual frustration. More precisely, they are seeking spiritual anchors in the midst of life's difficulties and uncertainties. They are looking for peace of soul—the dearest gift that man can possess.

Where are they to find this peace of soul? The Book of Psalms gives answer: "Much peace have they that love thy law, and to them there is no stumbling block." To love God's law—that means, of course, ready submission to God. It means leading lives patterned according to Christian thought and teaching. It means bearing trouble patiently, seeing in all the vicissitudes and pains of life an invitation to abandon oneself completely to the will and purpose of God. This is the infallible and only recipe for abiding happiness.

Peace of soul may exist even in the midst of the most bitter affliction. Some of the happiest people in the world can be found in the most dismal slums and among hospital inmates who have spent months, even years, enduring the dual trial of loneliness and physical suffering.

Such being the case, it seems utterly tragic that millions of people, leading apparently healthy, moderately luxurious lives, fail to attain that serenity of mind and heart which springs from peace in the soul.

The night before He died, Christ said to His apostles: "Peace I leave with you, My peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth do I give unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, nor let it be afraid." These words were not meant for the apostles alone; they were addressed to everyone. But they have reality only for those who sincerely love God.

There can be no peace of soul for the enemies of God, for those who defy His commandments because they prefer to put their own comfort, convenience or success in the first place. The first step toward peace of soul is to give in to God, wholeheartedly and completely. In this surrender there is no guarantee of freedom from pain of mind or body, but there is always the assurance of a spiritual buoyancy and grace that can lift the soul out of every fear and tribulation that may beset it on its pilgrimage toward eternal security.

Sunday School Lesson

Jesus Fulfilled All That Was Promised

By William E. Gilroy, D.D.

Jesus began His ministry at home, which was the proper and natural place to begin, but also the most difficult.

His sayings, "A prophet is not without honor, save in his own country" and "A man's foes shall be those of his own household," express a truth widely exemplified in human experience. How many men of genius have had to win their way and fame against the strong opposition of parents, who designed them for something else! How many men of achievement and fame won in the outside world have received belated honor from communities that regarded them with suspicion in their youth!

Jesus, of course, did not have the embarrassment of the average youth, who rises to preach in his own home town. As Luke tells us, He had increased in favor with man, as well as with God. There were no unsavory escapades, or unworthy incidents such might become all too vividly remembered by a youth speaking even in deep sincerity to those who had known him well.

But to preach in Nazareth, nevertheless, was not easy for the Master. His own brothers, as we know from John 7:1-5, did not believe in Him, or His professed mission, although at least two of them later became earnest Christians and leaders in the church.

The favor with which His fellow townsmen had viewed Him soon disappeared as Jesus announced that mission and ministry; and with the blindness and prejudice of the otherwise religiously earnest all through the history of religion, they not only rejected Him, but they sought to throw Him from the brow of a nearby hill and kill Him. Jesus must have sensed these dangers, for "He knew what was in man." But He dared to face them and to declare in the place where He was brought up, the consciousness of the mission, ministry to which He had been called, to fulfill the prophecy of Isaiah. "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because He hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; He hath sent me to heal the broken hearted, to preach deliverance to the captives and recovery of sight to the blind to set at liberty them that are bruised, to preach the acceptable year of the Lord."

Why should such words, or such a claim, have moved anybody to anger? If He who announced such a ministry could not perform it, where was anyone the worse? Gamaliel had much better sense and wisdom. "If the work of man it shall come to naught; if it be of God ye cannot prevail against it."

The Gospels tell the story of how those words spoken in Nazareth, and the ministry begun there, were vindicated in all that the Master said and did. In teaching, preaching and healing He fulfilled all that a great prophet had declared of God's plan and purposes.

Women at Cooking School Interestedly Taking Notes

Every day the same women may be seen at the Democrat-Capital Food Festival School of Cookery at the Liberty theater, many of them sitting at the same place each afternoon. Every day, too, there are many other women who have not attended the school before, but each and every one seems to be getting a thrill out of the school.

Miss Edaene Stohr has a charming way of telling what she is cooking and how she is cooking it, giving the feeling that you might be a neighbor who has dropped into the kitchen of her home and she continued to get her meal as she talked to you. Tripping back and forth, as Miss Stohr talks, is Miss Doris Keefe, her assistant, who puts food on to cook and takes it off when it is done. Miss Keefe also gives ideas in garnishing.

Trying Out Recipes
And are the women trying out these recipes and hints in cook-

Cooking School Menus

The following recipes are included in the Third Session of the "Food Festival School of Cookery."

Smoked Picnic—Pineapple Glaze
Place picnic, fat side up, on rack in open roasting pan. Insert meat thermometer so that bulb reaches center of largest muscle. Be sure bulb does not rest in fat or on bone. Do not add water.

ing that Miss Stohr presents each day? Indeed they are. "The first night I tried the apple strudel, the Swiss steak, the lemon meringue pie—and oh, yes the banana cake—and they were wonderful."

"I never knew before, as long as I have been washing, that starch should be used hot," said one woman. "I tried it and my clothes were beautifully starched."

Helpful Hints
Miss Stohr gives so many hints each day that women are kept busy with their note books. For sour sweet milk for cooking put a tablespoonful of vinegar in the bottom of the cup she suggests, pointing out that three teaspoonfuls makes one tablespoonful, so for a third of a cup of milk one teaspoonful of vinegar is used.

A little fat, butter or lard, will keep things from boiling over, she says, and put the fat side of the meat on top so that the meat will baste itself. You may use lard over and over again, she said by straining the drippings, and a few cubes of potato will clarify the fat when it is needed.

Thursday afternoon she made apple pie, which she believes is America's favorite dish, especially with men. The boys during the war missed nothing as much as Mom's apple pie, she said. Keeping the pie dough cold, is important, she said and she always sugars the apples before she puts them in the pie instead of afterward so each piece will get sugar. The cheese she serves with apple pie goes right in the pie on top of the apples and is baked in the pie. The top crust is cut shorter than the lower and the lower folded over the top so it cuts easy—and there you have it—ready to bake—apple pie and said Miss Stohr, it's truly American.

Do not cover. Roast in slow oven (300° F.) until meat thermometer registers 170° F. About 1 hour before picnic is done, spread pineapple glaze evenly on surface and return to oven. Continue to cook until meat is done. Allow about 30 to 35 minutes per pound for roasting. A 5-pound picnic will serve 10 to 12 people.

Pineapple Glaze
1 small can crushed pineapple
1/4 cup sugar
Combine pineapple and sugar and cook slowly for 15 minutes or until mixture begins to thicken.

Broiled Lamb Chops
6 lamb rib, loin, or shoulder chops, cut 1-inch thick
Salt and pepper
Place chops on broiler rack. Insert broiler pan so top of chops is 2 inches from heat. When one side is brown, season, turn and finish cooking on second side. Season. Chops require 10 to 12 minutes for each side. 3 to 6 servings.

Kidney-Sausage Spaghetti
1 pound kidney
1/2 pound bulk pork sausage
1 green pepper
4 cloves garlic
1 small onion
2 No. 2 1/2 cans tomatoes
1 small can tomato paste
1 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
Grind kidney, green pepper, garlic and onion. Add sausage and brown. Add tomatoes and tomato paste. Season with salt and pepper. Cook until thick, about 1 1/2 hours, and serve over one 12-ounce package of cooked spaghetti. 12 servings.

Hungarian Goulash
3 pounds beef chuck, cut in 1-inch cubes
2 tablespoons lard or drippings
2 cups diced onions
1 teaspoon paprika
2 teaspoons salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
1 teaspoon caraway seeds
2 cups water
6 medium potatoes, cubed
1/4 cup flour
1/4 cup water
Brown beef in hot lard or drippings. Add onions, seasoning, and water. Cover and simmer 2 1/2 hours. Forty minutes before serving, add potatoes. Thicken liquid with flour and water. 8 servings.

3 tablespoons margarine or drippings
5 tablespoons flour
2 cups milk
1 teaspoon salt
1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce
1/4 cup grated cheese
2 cups green beans
Slice frankfurters one-half inch thick. Brown in hot fat. Remove to casserole. Stir flour into drippings. Add milk and salt and cook until thick. Add Worcestershire sauce, cheese and green beans. Combine with frankfurters in casserole. Bake in moderate oven (350° F.) for 40 minutes. 6 to 8 servings.

Onion Squares
2 cups Biscuit Mix (See recipe for Biscuit Mix)
1 cup milk
2 cups sliced onions
1 teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons lard or drippings
1 egg, beaten
1 cup sour cream
Brown onions in hot lard or drippings. Season. Add milk to Biscuit Mix to form soft dough. Pour into 9x9-inch greased pan. Arrange onions over biscuit mixture. Combine egg and sour cream and pour over all. Bake in hot oven (450° F.) for 18 to 20 minutes. Cut into 3-inch squares and serve with meat and gravy. 9 servings.

Biscuit Mix
8 cups sifted flour
1/4 cup baking powder
4 teaspoons salt
Lard (1 1/2 cups for hard wheat flour, or 1 cup for soft wheat flour.)

3/4 cup lard
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1 teaspoon cloves
1/2 teaspoon nutmeg
1 teaspoon salt
2 eggs, beaten
Sift flour with soda. Cut apricots in small pieces. Cook apricots, water, sugar, lard, spices and salt for 5 minutes. Cool. Add eggs and sifted dry ingredients to cooled mixture. Pour into 2 greased 5x9-inch loaf pans and bake in moderate oven (350° F.) for 1 hour. Yield: 2 loaves.

Miss Bessie Pritchard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Pritchard of Green Ridge became the bride of Quintin Binder, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Binder of Green Ridge at the Catholic church of La Monte on Wednesday morning, January 26, at 11:00 o'clock. Rev. Burke of Warrensburg read the double ring ceremony.

The bride wore a blue wool two-piece dress with navy blue accessories. Her corsage was of red camellias.

Katherine Pritchard, the bride's only attendant, wore a gray wool two-piece dress identical to the bride's dress, with black accessories. Her corsage was of red rose buds.

The bride is a graduate of Medford, Okla., high school. She attended Central Missouri Business College and has been employed in the office of Swift and Company for the past six years.

The bridegroom served three and one-half years in the army as infantryman and spent nearly two years overseas in the European theater, where he was awarded the Purple Heart.

Surprise For Rev. Croxton

Dr. Thomas W. Croxton, pastor of the First Baptist church, was honored by the members of the church immediately following the worship service last Sunday morning. The assistant pastor, E. Norman Webb, asked the pastor to come to the junior department and pass judgment on a proposed project before going home and when he entered the room he found the tables spread with a bountiful basket dinner and a beautifully decorated birthday cake.

After the dinner, Mr. Webb presided over group singing and a clever bit of reminiscing regarding Dr. Croxton's past. He expressed the thankfulness of the membership for the pastor's return after his accident and the best wishes for many more years of service. Mr. Webb then called upon the following, who expressed best wishes for the departments which they represented: W. O. Stanley, chairman of board of deacons; W. L. Reed, Sunday school superintendent; William Morgan, T. U. Director; Oscar DeWolf, chairman

Boy Scouts, and Mrs. R. B. Ruppard, W. M. U. president. Dr. Croxton responded, thanking all for their loyalty and thoughtfulness and marveling that the plans were kept as a complete surprise.

With the singing of "Blest Be the Tie" the group was dismissed. Democrat-Capital class ads get results. 10 words, 1 week, 80c.

Purse Reported as Lost Was Soon Found

Among the few reports the police station received Thursday was a telephone call from Mrs. Alma Cardwell, 321 West Sixth street. She reported losing her coin purse containing about $10 and a personal check for $30 while downtown that afternoon.

Later it was learned that the purse hadn't been lost after all. While rushing after the house to get an early start to Jefferson City Thursday afternoon, it was reported she mislaid the purse among some clothing.

In her hurry she failed to notify the police that she found her purse.

Wins Success In Two Years

NEW YORK, Feb. 4.—(P)—An American success story has been unfolded in the two years since Leon Jolson arrived here from a displaced persons camp in Germany.

He was penniless and jobless then.

Today he is president of a sewing machine sales company which in a little more than a year has done more than $1,000,000 in business, with a net profit of $25,000.

Jolson, who had spent three years in concentration camps, learned after his arrival here that certain sewing-machine needles were not available in this country. He also knew of a company in Italy that manufactured a special, versatile-use sewing machine.

To start a business in such equipment, he obtained a $2,000 loan from the United Service for New Americans, Inc., a Jewish relief agency. Some time ago, he repaid the last installment on the loan.

Yesterday, he handed the organization a $1,000 gift check.

"Please give it to someone," he said, "who can be as lucky as I am in this wonderful country."

Invitation to 'Common People'

INDEPENDENCE, Mo., Feb. 4.—(P)—President Truman's long-time friend, Mayor Roger T. Sermon, invited the "common people" to contribute $5,000,000 for a Truman memorial building in his home town.

Mayor Sermon proposed a two-story building on a block-square site here which would be called the "Truman building" and house papers and mementoes of the president as well as serving as a museum for Independence relics.

Sermon suggested union labor might find contributing to the proposed project a way to honor its chosen president.

"If each union member over the nation just gave $1, the result would be four or five million for the memorial building fund," he said.

Sermon said he had no definite plans and would await the sentiment of "the common people" over the nation before taking any further action.

Open Road For Mother-to-be

SARGENT, Neb., Feb. 4.—(P)—A snowbound expectant mother had her road to town today, thanks to "Henriette," a bulldozer imported from Kansas City.

But Henriette, it developed, wouldn't have had to hurry.

"I'm sure glad to see you," Mrs. Nyle L. Stegall assured Wayne Grossman, the cat-skinner who guided the "dozer down the eight mile road from town.

"But I'm not due until March 3," "Must have been Dad who called about me," she added.

"Nyle (her husband) and I haven't been worried at all."

The bulldozer crew had figured it was running a nip and tuck race with the stork. It took 48 hours to open the eight mile stretch of road.

Train Damages Car, Driver Uninjured

COLUMBIA, Mo., Feb. 4.—(P)—Richard Houser, 4930 Pershing avenue, St. Louis, was uninjured today when a Missouri-Kansas-Texas train backed into his automobile at a grade crossing as Houser was on his way to an early morning class at the University of Missouri.

The train, traveling eight miles an hour, pushed the car 66 feet and then shunted it into a ditch. The rear end of the car was demolished. Houser told police he didn't see the train. E. Level, train conductor, said he was blowing the air whistle on the caboose as the train approached the crossing. He saw Houser's car, he said, but supposed the driver would stop for the train.

New Chinese Term
NANKING, Feb. 4.—(P)—Government officials and workers debating whether to flee before the advancing Communists have brought a new term to the Chinese language.

It is "white Chinese"—meaning, as in the case of white Russians after the revolution, political refugees from the Communists.

"I will not be a white Chinese—I'm staying here," is a common expression in Nanking today.

Second Day of Cardinal Trial

BUDAPEST, Hungary, Feb. 4.—(P)—Josef Cardinal Mindszenty repudiated in court today a letter he had written his bishops before his arrest. He called "null and void" the letter which said any admissions of guilt obtained from him by the police could be considered as false and obtained under duress.

The second day of the cardinal's treason trial brought a plea of guilty from Duke Paul Esterhazy, one of the cardinal's six co-defendants. The cardinal and his secretary yesterday acknowledged guilt in part, while a professor pleaded innocent. Esterhazy, a royalist, acknowledged illegal money dealings with the cardinal's household. In response to a question from the cardinal, Esterhazy said he had never requested financial support for royalist activities from the cardinal.

Like Cardinal Mindszenty, Esterhazy denied the charges of plotting to overthrow the Communist-dominated government.

WAC's Are Wearing The Army's Pants

MOUNT WASHINGTON, N. H., Feb. 4.—(P)—The WACs are wearing the army's pants.

On the frigid slopes of the highest mountain in New England ten rugged young women led by Lt. Ann Cummings of Newton, Mass., are testing new Arctic clothing designed for soldiers.

Uncle Sam is trying to prove that every father of a white-shirted teen-aged daughter already knows, that girls can wear men's clothes.

With WAC's now serving in Alaska and many northern outposts the army wants to be sure its distaff side is equipped with the warmest clothing available.

Unemployment Jumps 700,000

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4.—(P)—Unemployment jumped 700,000 in January — one of the biggest increases since the end of the war, the census bureau reported today.

Simultaneously, total employment plunged 2,000,000 below the December level, the bureau added.

Net effects of these developments were:

1. Total unemployment rose to a level of 2,650,000 in the first month of 1949, and stood 600,000 higher than in January, 1948.
2. Total employment fell to 57,500,000 but wound up 265,000 higher than a year ago.

Part of the rise in unemployment was attributed to normal seasonal factors — the usual mid-winter reduction in outdoor work and in trade activities.

But cutbacks in factory output were important, too, the bureau said.

"Most of the additional unemployed were men, including many veterans of World War II," it reported.

Sackcloth is Fashionable

PARIS, Feb. 4.—(P)—Women can even wear sackcloth and ashes, of course.

Although there is nothing revolutionary about "Look '49," Jacques Fath has come up with a new idea in materials. Among the dresses he showed here last night was a full skirted strapless cocktail dress of sackcloth.

It was not the sackcloth of Biblical days—dark cloth of goat's or camel's hair—worn as a sign of penance with ashes on the forehead. It was cotton sackcloth and what's more the bodice was heavily encrusted with gold and sequin embroidery.

The dress had a gold serpentskin belt and was topped with a white woolen plique beehive jacket.

Another little sackcloth number was a thigh length full coat of studded with almond nutshells and raffia embroidery. Rita Hayworth, who attended the show with Aly Khan, described both numbers as "unusual but very smart." She showed a marked preference for the coat.

S-C Tigers In Tourney Tonight

Team Has Shown Good Record in Past Three Games

The Smith-Cotton basketball team will journey to Clinton tonight where they will play Warrensburg high school at 8:45 o'clock in the Clinton tournament, which started Wednesday and will play through Saturday.

Another game is scheduled Saturday for the Tigers, but the challenging team has not been named, depending the outcome of winners and losers in tonight's contest.

Totalling all points made in eight games played this season, not counting the pre-conference tournament held three days last December, the Tigers have tallied 419 points against 323 points totaled by the eight teams the Tigers either lost or won to.

S-C Tigers Season Record

Four conference games have been postponed during January due to the hardships of traveling during the inclement weather. They were with Columbia, M. M. A., Hannibal, and another game with M. M. A.

The Tigers have won six games and lost two of which one was a conference "dropped to Jefferson City on the night of January 7. This game was an overtime one.

The Tigers started out with scoring in the 30's, a couple weeks later, the team hit baskets for 40's, and during the past three games, the team has hit the 70 bracket. On January 14, the team defeated Kemper 70-28; January 25, Marshall suffered a defeat of 51-71, and on January 31, the Tigers whipped College High of Warrensburg by a score of 72-42.

Kentucky U. Proves Again Its Fitness

As the Nation's No. 1 Team by Defeating Mississippi 75-45

NEW YORK, Feb. 4.—(AP)—Kentucky again demonstrated last night its fitness as the nation's No. 1 collegiate basketball team.

The NCAA champs, voted into first place over St. Louis in this week's Associated Poll, swamped Mississippi, 75 to 45. The victory was Kentucky's 53rd straight against Southeastern Conference competition.

Villanova, ranked 7th, started a new winning streak. Unbeaten previous to its defeats by Duquesne and Chicago Loyola this week, Villanova bowled over Baldwin-Wallace, 72-43.

Louisville, which on Wednesday night had upset powerful Western Kentucky, was in turn surprised by Evansville. The latter club was accurate on long shots to register a 68-60 victory.

Holy Cross, playing for the first time in four years without George Kaftan and Dermie O'Connell, whipped Temple, 59 to 50, in a Boston doubleheader.

Manhattan bopped Boston College 63-54, in the other tilt before 6,575.

Notre Dame snapped a two-game losing streak by crushing Michigan State, 63-47. Texas lost a 12-point lead to Oklahoma, then tallied three field goals in the last minute to beat the Big Seven quintet, 59-53.

Pitt's touring five took another licking on the Pacific Coast, losing to Los Angeles Loyola, 54-45.

Mangrum Has a One-Stroke Lead

By Murray Sinclair

TUCSON, Ariz., Feb. 4.—(AP)—Lloyd Mangrum, Chicago, who made $5 for each competitive stroke in 1948, starts today's second round of the $10,000 Tucson Open Golf tourney with a one-stroke lead.

Tough breaks on the greens couldn't stop the winner of the recent Los Angeles Open from carrying a six under par 64 in the first round yesterday.

Fifty-five of the field of 138 equalled or smashed par 70 for the flat El Rio layout.

Just a stroke off the pace are Chick Harbert, Detroit; Eric Monty, Santa Monica, Calif. and Johnny Bull, Pittsburgh, Pa.

Monty required only 13 putts.

Pre-tourney favorites ran into trouble. Jimmy Demaret, Ojai, Calif., twice winner of the event, is back in a tie for 33rd position with a one under par 69.

Defending champion Skip Alexander of Southern Pines, N. C., carded 70.

Sam Sneed, White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., finished with 73 after being in continual trouble.

Skee Riegel, Tulsa, Okla., and Frank Stranahan, Toledo, O., led the 16 amateurs and most of the pros with cards of 66.

Mangrum isn't complaining about yesterday's sub-par performance. "It was one of the best rounds I've played for some time," he said.

Ben Hogan's Condition Reported 'Good' Today

EL PASO, Texas, Feb. 4.—(AP)—The condition of Ben Hogan, the nation's top professional golfer, was reported "good" today by doctors at an El Paso hospital.

Hogan was badly hurt Wednesday in an automobile-bus collision 29 miles east of Van Horn, Texas.

X-rays late yesterday revealed that Hogan suffered a broken inner ankle bone of his left leg in the accident in which he also fractured his pelvis, broke a collar bone and fractured a rib.

Clyde Scott May Join The Philadelphia Eagles

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 4.—(AP)—Clyde (Smackover) Scott, University of Arkansas' great back, is due in town tonight or tomorrow to discuss his football future with the Philadelphia Eagles.

The six-foot, 175-pound back is enroute by automobile from his home in Smackover, Ark.

DOC BOB

If You Must Press Silks and Rayons At Home... use an electric iron with a temperature control for silk and rayon. Pure silk, (which you never see) can be pressed at a high temperature. Rayons and celanese MUST be pressed at an extremely low heat. If your iron is set for wool - silk or cotton... the temperature is high enough to melt rayons and celanese. Ever notice your iron stick? If iron is too hot... the rayon fibers melt and run together, causing a hard spot, which can never be remedied in the least... what looks like shine to you on a hem or seam is the result also and cannot be removed. Remember... press on the wrong side... medium hot iron... not dampen. But just remember also, that we are in business to worry about your pressing for you.

The Daily Washington Merry-Go-Round

by Drew Pearson

WASHINGTON, Feb. 4—February 7 has been marked on the state department calendar with a red circle. This is the date the diplomats are going to watch to see whether the Russians really want to get along with the USA.

On that date the United States, France and Britain begin negotiations with Russia for an Austrian peace treaty and the state department has decided to let these negotiations serve as a barometer of the cold war.

So far the Russians have been talking peace but acting tough. While Togliatti in Italy and Communist leaders in France have been announcing that Russia can get along with the west and while Stalin has said he would be willing to meet Truman, actually there has been not the slightest change in Russian policy.

But when the big powers sit down to negotiate an Austrian peace treaty, the state department thinks Russia will have a chance to show whether she really means what she says. If Russian delegates are reasonably regarding Austria, Secretary of State Acheson is preparing to propose a meeting in New York of the Big Four foreign ministers — Russia, Britain, France and the U. S. — about April 5, when the United Nations holds a special assembly session.

Note — Other U. S. observers don't agree with the state department that Austria is a good barometer of the cold war. They point out that, since Yugoslavia broke away from the Iron Curtain, Russia has no reason to be tough in Austria. It was Tito's influence that previously toughened up Russian policy against Austria.

Along Pennsylvania Avenue President Truman is happy as a schoolboy over the world-wide reception given to his plan to build up backward areas. After White House aides showed him stacks of newspaper clippings, the president remarked: "This idea is so good I should have thought of it a couple of years ago." ... Secretary of State Dean Acheson has agreed to name a woman as ambassador to one of the top European countries. ... The story on what happened to the Gallup polls, the predictors and the newspapers during the late election has just been published by Morris Ernst — "The People Know Best." Healthy reading for newspapermen. ... After the real estate lobby demanded an investigation of New York City's rent advisory board, Chairman Joseph McGoldrick wired the senate banking and currency committee welcoming such a probe. But he added — that the investigation should also include the real estate lobby.

Chinese Communist Visits The U. S. Consulate

The state department has just received an awkward cable from American consul general Angus Ward in Mukden, China.

Consul Ward cabled that American citizens, American property and American diplomats in Communist-held northern China are receiving remarkably good treatment at the hands of Chinese Communists. In fact, Ward cabled that one of the leading Communist generals of the north

Shoulders Are As Tender as Familiar Cuts

No. 8 in a series of articles on "Cooking the Modern Way" by Edalene Stohr, Home Economist and Lecturer for the National Livestock and Meat Board.

Hungry or no, lamb chops will tempt your family's appetite. Just start them cooking and before you know it you'll be besieged with questions of "How soon are we going to eat?" Nowadays this is true the year 'round, no need to wait until spring for our first taste of "spring lamb," as our fathers and mothers used to do.

Does it surprise you to know that there are more than two different kinds of lamb chops? Perhaps you only know of one or two, the favored loin or rib chops, for example. But there are others, too, and it is primarily because they are not well-known that they are often considered a budget buy. Among these are lamb shoulder chops, cut from the arm and blade-bone side of the shoulder, so that they contain the characteristic round arm bone or long slender blade bone.

Some people prefer to broil the shoulder chops of lamb, thinking they are less tender than the rib or loin chops. Actually they are just as tender—all cuts of lamb except the shank and breast sections are tender enough to be cooked by roasting, broiling or pan broiling.

To be broiled successfully, any chop should be at least 3/4 to 1-inch thick, and may be as thick had visited the consulate that day to pay his respects.

The Chinese general was most polite, spent an hour assuring Ward of the Communist desires for friendship with the USA, and their hope of peaceful cooperation and trade. Following this, Ward took the Communist general on a tour of the American consulate.

His visitor seemed much impressed, particularly by an exhibit of the U. S. information service which featured news dispatches and propaganda, translated into Chinese, telling America's story to the Chinese people.

"Now, Mr. Consul," the Chinese Communist general said, "I am delighted that you Americans believe in the freedom of the press. I think this is a very fine exhibit. We believe in freedom of the press, too."

Consul Ward smiled happily. Then he stopped smiling.

"Since we all believe in the freedom of the press," continued the Chinese Communist general, "I have a few documents and articles that I'd like to put up with your exhibit so that the people can see both sides of the story. That would only be freedom of the press. I know you will be glad to do it."

Consul Ward had no answer. He engaged in some polite double talk, then hastily wired the state department for instructions.

Capital Chaff

The Republicans who wangled the Lincoln day dinner invitation for Governor Dewey were Michigan's congressman George Dondero, chairman of the Lincoln Day committee, and his close friend, GOP national chairman Hugh Scott. Other Republicans are irked because Dewey was invited. ... Not a word has been said about it, but 200 American fighter planes have been sent to Italy from Germany; also nearly 1,000 tons of U. S. munition have gone to the Italian army. General Clay decided on the shipments after one of his aides conferred with the Italian chief of staff in Rome. ... The USA has started secret negotiations with Panama to secure new American bases. Panama cancelled its bases agreement last year at which time U. S. troops promptly pulled out. Now Panamanians are offering new bases in return for a loan. Army-Navy in turn, want to set up radar equipment in Panama — outside the Canal Zone — to warn against enemy airplanes.

Argentina's Tourist Ban

Real motive behind Argentine dictator Peron's new decree restricting the movements of tourists in that country is that, like Russia's Joe Stalin, Gen. Harry Vaughan's friend wants to keep foreigners out of his private world.

From the Peronist point of view it's a two-way disadvantage now to have outsiders coming into totalitarian Argentina. For one thing, even the casually observant tourist can't help seeing that the much-ballyhooed five-year plan is getting exactly nowhere.

Between the regime's "inability" to import machinery and supplies from the U. S. (although it spent some $150,000,000 on armaments bought from us last year) and the marked decline in workday productivity, Peron's grandiose plans for industrialization have been 85 per cent abandoned. And almost any visitor is bound to realize it.

Then, too, the foreigner com-

Lamb For Good Eating

Lamb chops—including these meaty shoulder chops—spell good eating to almost everyone. Both the arm and blade-bone chops are shown. Not only are these chops delicious, but they represent a good buy as far as your budget is concerned, too.

as 2 inches. Place the chops on the rack, and then slip the rack into the broiler so that the surface of the meat is 2 to 3 inches from the heat. That way the chops will have that "slow-cooked" flavor which is so famous in meat.

The length of cooking time depends on the thickness of the chops. Usually when the meat turns a delicate brown it is a good indication that it is cooked. Cook until the chops are brown on one side (usually about 4 minutes for 1-inch chops.) Season and turn the chops, then brown on the other side, allowing about the same length of time. Season and serve on a hot platter. (If chops are seasoned before they are cooked, the salt on the cut surface will be lost and the juices from the meat will keep it from browning attractively.)

Lamb chops may also be pan-broiled, if you have no broiler or if the chops are thinner than recommended for broiling. This term may be new to some folks. Pan-frying is the familiar cookery ing into Argentina these days can make himself a small fortune by bringing in a few small U. S. luxury items (wrist watches, fountain pens, electric shavers, etc.) Starved for such imported consumer goods, and jittery about the value of his own money, the currency poor Argentine will pay fabulous prices for them.

As a result, many an American tourist in Buenos Aires recently has covered the cost of his entire trip with almost no effort. And the articles he sells at a handsome profit command even more on resale, thus dooming the Argentine capital's fat black market.

Farmers Are Dead In Automobile

ROLLA, Mo., Feb. 4—(P)—Vernon McElfresh, 30, and Henry Mitchell, 45, farmers, were found dead early Thursday in their car which was parked beside a highway near Edgar Springs. Coroner Claude Null of Phelps county attributed death to Carbon monoxide poisoning.

Coroner Null theorized that the two men were driving home last night when their car was stalled by icy pavement and that they fell asleep with the motor running. A dog in the car also was dead.

CARROLLTON, Mo., Feb. 4—(P)—A cigar clenched in his teeth, Gust Javilakes of Marshall, Mo., was driving down a slippery road. His car skidded, overturned three times and rolled over a 12-foot embankment. Passersby had to form a human chain to bring him back up.

He still had the smoking cigar in his mouth, claimed he'd never missed a puff throughout the ordeal.

Keep Peace Talks In UN Group

President in Full Approval Of Statement by Dean Acheson

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—(P)—President Truman said positively today that this government won't spurn the United Nations for separate talks with Russia or any other country.

Mr. Truman told a news conference that Secretary of State Dean Acheson's detailed rejection of Prime Minister Stalin's indirect "peace" talk offer had his full endorsement.

Asked if this nation would meet with other powers outside the UN, Mr. Truman replied flatly that it would not.

He asked about Acheson's analysis of the Stalin interview in which the Secretary of State emphasized we would not talk with Russia about matters concerning other nations. Mr. Truman said he thought that the Stalin statements were completely and fairly answered by Acheson and that no further statement is needed.

Clay to Keep Post
Other news conference developments:

1. The President said General Lucius Clay would remain in control of American military government in Germany.

This was prompted by a question whether he planned to transfer control of administration in the American zone to the state department. The army is known to have made an urgent request for the change.

2. Mr. Truman hopes that no agencies of the government are exempted from reorganization authority which he has asked of congress.

3. A reporter told him there were moves on foot to write a hands-off order into the pending bill to prevent his dealing with the interstate commerce commission, the federal Trade commission, and other bureaus. Mr. Truman seeks the authority to make reorganizations throughout the executive department as he sees fit. They would be effective unless congress vetoes his orders.

4. The farm crisis in the west brought about by repeated winter storms blocking feed for livestock is well on its way to being solved if we don't get any more storms, Mr. Truman said.

5. He announced appointment of former Gov. Mon. C. Wallgren of Washington as chairman of the National Resources Security Board.

6. Mr. Truman was asked if he favored a national day of prayer for peace and stricken parts of the world. He said he thinks it ought to be done every day, not necessarily any one special day.

The President paid tribute to the late President Woodrow Wilson when a reporter recalled that the nation's leader in World War one died 25 years ago. Mr. Truman said he was sending his military aid with a wreath to place on Wilson's tomb.

State Funds To 126 Banks

JEFFERSON CITY, Feb. 3.—(P)—State Treasurer M. E. Morris said today he has approved 126 national and state banks in Missouri as depositories for state funds.

If you could line up all the 605 banks in the state, about one out of five would be handling some of the state's funds. The banks now are seeking that sort of business—it improves their financial positions.

They have to secure the deposit at 110 per cent—cash or government bonds.

Perhaps the biggest single deposit is the $29,000,000 pile of cash in the Commerce Trust Company of Kansas City. But it keeps the bank busy.

A large number of the state's checks—say, 120,000 of them a month for old age assistance—may be drawn on that deposit at once.

One month's old age assistance nowadays means about $5,000,000.

Two other active checking accounts are kept by the state in Jefferson City and St. Louis.

The other depositories can usually rely on their deposits remaining comparatively stable. The smallest one is listed as $50,000—a tidy deposit to a small country bank.

The number of state depositories has been constantly growing. In the four years following 1933 there were only 17. There were twice as many in 1937. 50 in 1941. 65 in 1945, then nearly double that number—126—listed today by Treasurer Morris.

As of today state treasury funds totaled about $102,000,000. The amount varies daily.

Approve Bill to Keep Train Running

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—(P)—The House postoffice committee today approved a bill to put the Freedom train back on the tracks and keep it running until July, 1951. The bill would provide $2,000,000 for government operation of the train and its cargo of historical documents.

Child, 5, Killed in A Freak Accident

KANSAS CITY, Feb. 3.—(P)—A five-year old boy was killed in a freak traffic accident here today. The child, Almon James Coen, and his pet dog, Eight Ball, were playing in the front seat of a panel truck driven by the boy's mother, Mrs. Marv Alice Coen, 28.

Suddenly the door on the boy's side of the vehicle swung open, without stopping, Mrs. Coen reached across in an attempt to close it. She lost control of the truck. It plunged off the street and sideswiped a tree.

Little Almon fell partly out the door at the same instant. His head was crushed as the tree forced shut the swinging door.

Judge Couey is Kiwanis Club Guest Speaker

Is Chairman of Missouri State Parole Board

Giving convicts parole and supervision under selective environment is better than letting them serve out full terms, with likelihood of returning to old friends and habits that ultimately land them back in prison again, declared Judge E. W. Couey, chairman of the Missouri State Parole Board, speaking before the Sedalia Kiwanis club meeting in Bothwell hotel Thursday noon.

The speaker, who was introduced by program chairman John Hefess, reviewed the activities of the Missouri board in attempting to rehabilitate men sent to prison so that they will return to society as better citizens.

Close to Parolees
The board maintains close contact with parolees, the greater percentage of whom are able to readjust themselves. The Missouri board works with parole boards in other states on a mutual basis of parolee supervision.

This has created a heavy load for the present board, but its activities never waver in the human rehabilitation program in which every man's case is measured on its individual merits before the applicant is eligible for parole.

Club singing was lead by J. T. Alexander.

Seven And Navy Plane Missing

INYOKE, Calif., Feb. 3.—(P)—Five civilian scientists and two crewmen aboard a navy plane are missing and feared to have crashed on a flight from the Naval Ordnance test station here to Alameda, Calif.

The scientists were all employed at the test station and were residents of California, according to Commander W. G. Whitley of the Inyokern station. Names of the scientists and crewmembers were withheld pending notification of the next of kin.

A spokesman at 11th Naval District Headquarters in San Diego said the plane carried only 4 hours' fuel supply and it "must be down somewhere."

State Patrol headquarters here said a student at the wheel, an instructor, and one other student were injured, though not critically.

President Talks to Group Of Teen-Agers in U. S. Visit

By Roger D. Greene

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—(P)—President Truman spoke a homely little lesson today on how democracy functions in the United States "so that no one has too much power."

His audience—a wide-eyed, delighted group of 34 teen-agers from 17 Marshall plan countries—broke into spontaneous handclapping at his words.

Only too well, they knew what he meant.

All of them, in more or less degree, have lived under the shadowy fear of dictatorships. But here, the President told them: "The power is in the people themselves."

Speaking informally to the youngsters in his oval room of office at the White House, Mr. Truman said:

"I hope to see the time come when every section of the world will have a government that is a government of, and by, and for the people, as Mr. Lincoln said along in the 1860's."

"I sincerely hope x x x that

Span US in Huge Plane at 268 Miles Hour

Largest Passenger List Ever by Air Across Country

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—(P)—The Navy's giant Constitution landed at National Airport at 9:30 p. m. (EST) tonight, nine hours and 35 minutes out of San Francisco non-stop with the largest passenger load ever to span America by air.

The 72 passengers and 18 crew men covered the 2,577-mile airway route at an average speed of 268 miles an hour.

The 184,000 pound transport was eased on to the runway so skillfully that some passengers were not aware it was down.

The flight was the first regular scheduled trip in a six months series of transcontinental runs to be made as part of the Navy's evaluation of the largest aircraft it ever has owned. The Constitution, largest in the Lockheed family of planes, will be used regularly as a passenger transport between Patuxent River, Md., Naval Air Station and Moffett Field, near San Francisco.

Occupied Upper Deck
The passengers were accommodated on the upper deck, capable of seating 92, in a cabin with grey walls, rose carpet and dark blue seats.

The plane can accommodate 168 passengers if used entirely for personnel, but in its normal operation the two vast holds of the lower deck will be used for cargo. The Navy has two ships in the Constitution class.

Today's flight set neither a speed nor air lift record, but is distinguished by the fact it carried the most passengers ever hauled on a regular transcontinental flight operation.

The largest number of passengers taken aloft is 207 carried by the Navy dirigible, the Akron, later lost at sea. The flight was made at Lakehurst, N. J., Nov. 3, 1931.

The fastest transport plane west coast to Washington is six hours four minutes established January 9, 1945 with the Boeing C-97, an air force transport.

Admits Fatally Clubbing Husband

MARYVILLE, Mo., Feb. 3.—(P)—County officers announced today that Mrs. Mollie A. Mathers, 63, has signed a statement saying she clubbed to death her 75-year-old husband, Manie Mathers, at their farm near Hopkins, Mo., January 29.

Wallgren to Resources Board

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—(P)—President Truman today announced the appointment of former Gov. Mon. C. Wallgren of Washington state as chairman of the National Security Resources Board.

The one time colleague of Mr. Truman in the Senate will receive $14,000 a year in his new post.

Presidential Assistant John R. Steelman has been acting as head of the resources board since the resignation some weeks ago of Arthur G. Hill.

Gives Birth To Sixth Child At Age Of 59

HELENA, Ark., Feb. 3.—(P)—A 59-year-old Helena woman has given birth to her sixth child. She described the event as "an answer to a prayer."

The mother is Mrs. Fred J. Turley, a nurse whose other five children are all dead. The father is a 65-year-old barber.

The baby, born Saturday night, is a five-pound, four-ounce boy who's doing fine.

Two of her daughters were killed in a bus accident in 1941. A son and two daughters died during World War Two.

eventually when you get to be as old as I am, the United Nations will be functioning fully and completely in keeping the peace of the world—which we all want."

The youths, brought to the United States by the New York Herald Tribune as a reward for their prize-winning essays on the subject "the world we want," have been touring the country. They plan to spend another month in New York before returning to their homes.

Far from being shy the youngsters from distant lands laughed and joked with the President and all demanded his autograph. He promise to send it to them.

For a young Turkish boy, Fuat Tekke, who somehow missed the party, Mr. Truman held a special one-boy reception later. Tekke told the President had been a "little sick."

But a White House guard said he saw the boy arrive with his comrades and then suddenly tear back to his hotel to fetch his diary for the President's signature.

Woman Sought In Strange Death

TULSA, Okla., Feb. 3.—(P)—The search continued today for a woman believed by police to hold the clue to the strange death last night of a Kansas City man found critically ill in a Vinita, Okla., tourist cabin.

"We are awaiting crime laboratory tests from Oklahoma City," County Investigator Brick Fowler said today. He believes the man, Alvin A. Irwin, 49, was the victim of foul play.

A Tulsa hospital pathologist said last night he found traces of poison following an autopsy performed with Mrs. Irwin's approval. She lives in Kansas City. Irwin was employed by the Traillett Manufacturing Co., Kansas City, Mo.

Police Chief Vernon Glenn of Vinita said it would be several days before results of the laboratory report are learned.

The woman sought disappeared after summoning the tourist operator to Irwin's cabin. Apparently realizing he was seriously ill, Irwin asked the man to get in touch with his wife and called for an ambulance. He died on the way to a Tulsa hospital.

Navy Declares It Will Have to Cut Strength

In Order to Meet 1950 Budget Set By President

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—(P)—The Navy said today it will have to lay up 72 ships, including 15 top-line fighting vessels and cut its strength by 30,000 men to meet President Truman's 1950 budget.

Secretary of the Navy Sullivan said three Essex-class carriers, nine light cruisers and three anti-aircraft cruisers have been placed for inactivation.

In a letter to the chairman of the Senate and House armed services and appropriation committees, Sullivan said the Navy plans to start reduction at once.

In addition to the cuts in ships and men, Sullivan said the Navy must reduce its air strength by a small percentage—some 400 planes out of more than 8,000—shut down a dozen small air stations.

Reduction Necessary
And he said "a general reduction in the scale of activity at naval shore establishments supporting the fleet, including employment levels at naval shipyards," will be necessary.

The secretary said the cost of making the cutback must be met out of this year's money. He referred to such expenses as those of preparing ships for layup and the administrative chores of the personnel cut.

Paying such costs out of 1949, the secretary wrote, will leave next year's cash intact to carry full strength throughout the year.

Cutback in Man Power
Under the present $15,000,000,000 military budget for the next fiscal year, the Navy was given $4,600,000,000. This year it had nearly $5,100,000,000.

Sullivan said the following cutback would be made in manpower:

Navy enlisted strength, 21,700. Marine corps, enlisted, 6,605. Navy and Marine officers, 1,195.

Two Accidents Were Caused By Ice Streets

Slippery streets caused two accidents this morning which were investigated by the police. Drivers of two cars in one accident are to appear at police headquarters Friday, while the driver of a truck in another accident was dismissed in police court this morning by Judge Harry O. Berry.

At 6:15 o'clock the first reported accident was at Saline street and Engineer avenue. Two cars came together here and damage of $125 resulted to a 1948 Chevrolet of the Yellow Cab Co., driven by Charles Hall, and slight damage to a 1946 Chevrolet sedan driven by Harry Brougner, 1008 South Carr avenue.

Police reported Brougner's car had been stopped and Mr. Brougner was in the act of putting chains on the wheels when the Yellow Cab, east on Saline, slide into the parked car.

Brougner and Hall were told to report to police headquarters Friday morning.

At 8:00 o'clock Thursday morning, damage resulted to a 1940 Studebaker sedan driven by Arthur Simon, rural route 1, LaMonte and to a 1946 Dodge truck belonging to Freeze and Rissler and driven by C. A. Young, 1001 East Seventeenth street, when they collided at Broadway and Ingram avenue.

The police reported that Simon, who was going east on Broadway, had slowed to turn south on Ingram avenue. Young was also headed east.

Young appeared in police court and was dismissed after hearing of evidence in the accident.

Haylift in Nevada Halted By More Snow

Drizzling Over a Part of State—Power Fails at St. Joseph

By The Associated Press

Winter stalled down the Nevada haylift Thursday but pulled its punches in the Nebraska, South Dakota and Wyoming snow disaster area where steady relief progress was made.

Other sections of the nation had much less trying conditions. Rain and snow fell in the midwest and the Pacific coastal area. It was unseasonably chilly in the east. And the south recovered somewhat from recent unprecedented cold.

In Congress, a second $500,000 appropriation was passed to pay for the Herculean task of reviving snow-choked expanses of the west.

The Nevada haylift operation by the Air Force was halted by snow squalls driven by high winds. Road diggers were warned of another six or more inches of snow by Friday morning.

Farther east, on the other side of the Rockies, 917 pieces of snowblasting machinery and 3,994 men cut roads through drifts in Nebraska, South Dakota and Wyoming. There was no immediate threat of more heavy snow here, but another night of sub-zero temperatures boded more hardship for snow-bound families and livestock.

The Chicago weather bureau said heavy snowfall would extend through southeastern Iowa, northern Illinois, southeastern Wisconsin and northern lower Michigan, with depths by mid-Friday ranging from four to seven inches.

The three-state effort, directed by the Fifth Army, freed 4,856 persons in a 24-hour period. Its commander, Maj. Gen. Lewis A. Pick, termed it "the greatest blizzard operation ever organized."

An Army officer reported that 3,200 dead cattle have been counted in South Dakota, and there is still a strip of snow-locked area about 100 miles wide extending from southwestern South Dakota to about the center of the state which hasn't been breached except by a few fliers.

The rest of the nation's weather picture included a new precipitation belt from the middle Mississippi valley which brought snow to Illinois, Iowa and Missouri, and rain or sleet to Arkansas and east Texas.

In the gulf states and Texas, temperatures were below normal after the sharp cold spell earlier this week, but they were moderating. Florida continued to enjoy mild weather.

KANSAS CITY, Feb. 3.—(P)—Most of the state had precipitation ranging from rain in the south to freezing mist and rain in the north this morning, and the weather bureau's forecast called for more.

Light snow and colder was indicated for northern Missouri with continuation of the rain in the south.

The forecast called for rain in the south and snow in the north with a narrow section of sleet or freezing rains in the central portions.

A moderate heavy snowfall was indicated for the northwest and extreme north portions. Low temperatures tonight were expected to range from 15 to 20 in the northwest to 25 in the south-east.

Borderline conditions of freezing and thawing made some of the streets and highways extremely slick. Eighteen traffic accidents were reported here during two and a half hour period this morning.

The state highway patrol reported glazed areas north of U. S. highway 50 during the night. The highway was wet in the Sedalia area.

Power Failure in St. Joseph

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Feb. 3.—(P)—Half of the city was left without electricity today because of a power failure at one of the generating plants of the St. Joseph Power & Light Co.

C. A. Semrad, president of the company, said he expected service would be back to about three-quarters of its normal load by tonight. Temperatures were near the freezing mark.

Hospital patients without lights or power. Police operated their radio station from a car parked outside of headquarters for more than an hour. Trolley service was halted and thousands were late to work. Some schools were closed because of the lack of power to operate heating equipment.

No Heat Downtown
Downtown buildings were without city steam today because of a power failure in the plant are electrically controlled.

Semrad said a new cable at the plant failed because of faulty materials and burned insulation from cables leading to both turbines.

During the morning blackout a baby was born at St. Joseph's hospital. At Missouri Methodist hospital arrangements were made to handle an emergency case but the patient was pronounced dead of a heart attack upon arrival.

Woodland Hospital Notes

Dismissed: Mr. Ora Dougherty of Marshall, Mo. Daughter, born to Mr. and Mrs. Dale Parker, of 1208 East Twelfth street, at 5:30 o'clock Thursday morning at the Woodland hospital, weighing six pounds and 11 ounces.

Keep Army Control In Occupied Berlin

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—(P)—The United States intends to keep the Army in control in occupied Berlin.

President Truman said today he has no intention of transferring control to the state department. Gen. Lucius D. Clay will remain on the job.

His statement was in response to questions at his news conference.

Farmers Are Found Dead In Automobile

ROLLA, Mo., Feb. 3.—(P)—Vernon McElfresh, 30, and Henry Mitchell, 45, farmers, were found dead early today in their car which was parked beside a highway near Edgar Springs. Coroner Claude Null of Phelps county attributed death to Carbon monoxide poisoning.

Coroner Null theorized that the two men were driving home late at night when their car was stalled by icy pavement and that they fell asleep with the motor running. A dog in the car also was dead.

Need Millions Of Dwellings

Proposal to Clear And Redevelop The Slum Areas

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—(P)—Raymond M. Foley federal housing administrator, told Congress today the nation needs between 17 and 18 million new dwellings within the next 10 years.

He said the government must provide outright grants as well as loans to cities to help them clear and redevelop slum areas.

Foley testified before the Senate banking committee in support of bills designed to carry out the administration's program for long-range, government-subsidized slum clearance, public housing and rural homes.

Chairman Sparkman (D-Ala.) said he hopes to complete public hearings in about two weeks and then draft legislation for Senate action.

While Foley waited to testify, Republicans and Democrats clashed over how many subsidized dwellings should be attempted and how much they should cost.

Senator Eilender (D-La.) urged approval of a one-pack bill which would authorize federal aid for constructing 1,050,000 public housing units over the next seven years.

Flanders Objects
But Senator Flanders (R-Vt.) objected that such a vast program might take away scarce materials and labor from private builders. He contended this would only intensify the current housing shortage and high prices.

Senator Cain (R-Wash.) said that with a ceiling of $2,500 per room on subsidized housing, a five room house for a low income family unable to pay normal rents could cost as much as $12,500. And for many people, he said, that's simply too much.

Meanwhile, Chairman Spence (D-Ky.) of the House banking committee said Congress may write a ban against mass eviction of tenants in its new rent control bill. The House group starts hearings next Monday on the administration bill to extend and strengthen rent controls for two years.

Commenting on the action, some landlords to withdraw their rental property from the market in protest against controls, Spence told newsmen:

"If this is intended to coerce congressional committees, it might have the opposite effect."

The new bill gives the federal housing expediter full authority to halt illegal evictions and to bring action against landlords if necessary. At present, tenants must go to court to protect themselves.

Recipes That Are, or Will be Favorites at Cooking School

Every day the same women may be seen at the Democrat-Capitol Food Festival School of Cookery at the Liberty theater, many of them sitting at the same place each afternoon. Every day, too, there are many other women who have not attended the school before, but each and every one seems to be getting a thrill out of the school.

Miss Edna Stohr has a charming way of telling what she is cooking and how she is cooking it, giving the feeling that you might be a neighbor who has dropped into the kitchen of her home and she continued to get her meal as she talked to you.

Tripping back and forth, as Miss Stohr talks, is Miss Doris Keefe, her assistant, who puts food on to cook and takes it off when it is done. Miss Keefe also gives ideas in garnishing.

Trying Out Recipes
And are the women trying out these recipes and hints in cooking that Miss Stohr presents each day? Indeed they are. "The first night I tried the apple strudel, the Swiss steak, the lemon meringue pie—and oh, yes the banana cake—and they were wonderful."

The apple strudel and the lemon meringue pie seemed to be the first dishes tried in most homes but cookies were popular, too, and of course the various ways of cooking meat were a treat for many a family.

"I never knew before, as long as I have been washing, that

Car Overturns But Driver Keeps Smoking

CARROLLTON, Mo., Feb. 3.—(P)—A cigar clenched in his teeth, Gust Javilakes of Marshall, Mo., was driving down a slippery road.

"Blue Ribbons to Sedalia" The rose gardens which were planned at the organization meeting of the Sedalia (Missouri) Rose Society, January 22, during the below-zero weather, won many ribbons for the society at the Missouri State Fair.

"One of the first activities of the organization was to plant four Paul's Scarlet Climbers and four Mary Wallace on trellis gateways opening into Liberty Park. The potted rose bushes were planted last May by a committee. Wire netting was placed around the plants and they were fertilized, cultivated and sprayed this summer. We are looking forward to many blooms this May. Cash from awards won will be used to further civic rose plantings.

Sixteen Entries, 14 Awards "The Sedalia Rose Society exhibited in the Amateur and Garden Club Section of the Floriculture Department at the 46th Missouri State Fair in August, 1948. Sixteen entries were made and 14 ribbons were awarded to the society, seven of which were blue, five were seconds, one a third award and one a fourth.

Ben Hogan is Improved Thursday

By Harold V. Radtiff

EL PASO, Tex., Feb. 3.—(AP)—Ben Hogan, golf's terrific artist, was improving today from the hard knocks suffered in a car-bus crash yesterday, and it was dollars to doughnuts he would be back on the tournament trail sooner than expected.

In the meantime, there are plenty of star Texas golfers capable of carrying on to replace Hogan as the top man of the game.

Hogan, 1948's leading golfer and for a decade one of the greatest stars of the tourney swing, was hurt when his car crashed with a Greyhound bus 29 miles east of Van Horn, Tex., 132 miles south-east of here.

Ben's wife, Valerie, suffered only minor injuries.

To Defend Of a New Labor Bill

he believes the government could obtain court orders "in appropriate circumstances" regardless of whether there was specific legal authority. Clark's opinion was in a letter to Committee Chairman Elbert Thomas (D-Utah).

Senator Donnell (R-Mo.) and other Republican members challenged Clark's statement at a public hearing last night.

With Secretary of Labor Tobin on the witness stand, Donnell picked up the ball again today.

Donnell Charged
Donnell charged that the administration is "trying to allay a fear all over the United States that the government's right to obtain an injunction" to prevent strikes "is to be abandoned by Congress."

Senator Douglas (D-Ill.) tried three times to interrupt. But Donnell refused to yield. He said he wanted to "preserve the continuity" of his argument.

Then Senator Neely (D-WV.) demanded: "Are we going to let this degenerate into an argument between Senators? Certainly all the members of the committee have a right to be heard."

Senator Morse (R-Ore.) angrily exclaimed: "This is the time to find out whether it is the intention of the Democratic majority to permit only the arguments they want here."

Talked With Clark
Donnell asked whether Tobin was aware that Clark had been asked to submit a letter to the committee.

"Yes, I talked with him (Clark) on the telephone about it, but I did not know what his opinion was going to be," Tobin replied.

Donnell then repeated: "I say it was the purpose of the letter to allay fear all over the United States that the right to obtain an injunction was to be abandoned by Congress."

While Tobin was being questioned, CIO representatives waited to give formal endorsement of the administration's measure.

Arthur Goldberg, CIO general counsel, gave reporters a copy of a statement saying "It appears that the bill offers the only practical method of obtaining speedy Taft-Hartley repeal and re-enactment of the substantive provisions of the Wagner Act."

Two Contentions
Goldberg said, however, that the CIO would make "some constructive suggestions to clarify" certain provisions.

Donnell required 50 minutes to present his case which boiled down to these two major contentions:

1. In his opinion the nation "should not take an assurance of safety" from national emergency strikes.

2. Yet labor leaders cannot be sure that the president will not seek injunctions against national emergency strikes, or be "too sure that they will not be granted by the courts."

Talk Over Club Scholarships

Ray C. Lippard, member of the Sedalia Rotary club, went to Kansas City Wednesday to meet with a group of Rotarians of the Club's 134th district, members of a committee to go over applications for the Rotary scholarship fund.

Among the applications considered Wednesday were some from Kansas City University, Drury College, Springfield; CMSC, Warrensburg and Park College, Parkville.

On the committee, other than Mr. Lippard, are: George Diemer, Warrensburg; George district Governor; Harry Gambel, president Kansas City Rotary club; Lester Wikoff, Lexington; John Becker, Independence.

Lose Lives in Mercy Mission

OMAHA, Feb. 3.—(AP)—A mercy mission in Nebraska's blizzard area cost the lives of two civilian airmen late yesterday.

While dropping materials to be used for distress signals, their little plane struck a telephone wire and crashed into a farm house.

The dead were John Huff, 32, a fur buyer, and William O'Brien, 43, an insurance man.

Like many other flying mercy missions from sunset to sundown, they had deserted their regular jobs while they flew rescue and search missions.

Their deaths brought to three the number of persons killed in rescue and relief efforts. Earlier, a railroad worker died in a snow plow accident.

Twenty-two persons have died in Nebraska since Jan. 3 from causes directly or indirectly due to the weather.

Meat Buyers to Ultimately Pay

STERLING, Colo., Feb. 3.—(AP)—The meat-buying public ultimately will have to pay for the blizzards sweeping western rangelands, a leading Colorado stockman said today, out right now they mean cheaper steaks and roasts.

A. A. Smith of Sterling, American National Livestock Association president, said in an interview this is an excellent time to fill meat lockers and conserve meat in storage.

"Because of storm conditions in feedlots and ranges," he said, "cattle are going to market in abnormally large numbers and prices are depressed—doubtless temporarily."

Smith said meat prices eventually will rise to absorb losses of stockmen because of cattle perishing in storms, plus weight shrinkage among those surviving.

Cardinal in Denial of Plot To Overthrow

Charge at Trial For Treason He Sought to Escape

By Endre Marton
BUDAPEST, Hungary, Feb. 3.—(AP)—The prosecution charged tonight that Josef Cardinal Mindszenty, now on trial for treason, had attempted to get U. S. Minister Selden Chapin to help him escape prison and flee Hungary by plane.

Hungary's Roman Catholic primate pleaded partial guilt earlier to the government charges against him. He firmly denied, however, that he had plotted to overthrow Hungary's Communist-dominated regime.

All of the things charged against him, the Cardinal said, occurred early in 1947, "when many people thought that a world war was inevitable."

Cardinal Mindszenty said that in the future he would have regard for the sovereignty of the Hungarian government. He also offered to withdraw from his office for a time if such a move would help establish peace between the government and the Catholic church.

Cardinal Mindszenty and six other defendants went on trial today on charges of treason, spying and black market money dealings.

(In Washington, the U. S. state department reiterated tonight its flat rejection of Hungarian charges against American Minister Selden Chapin in the Mindszenty case.)

(In its "yellow book" on Cardinal Mindszenty's case, the government charged Chapin sought military and other information from the Cardinal. Those charges were rejected by the U. S. state department, which expressed full confidence in Chapin.)

Garbed in Simple Robes
The Cardinal was clad in the robes of a simple priest when he was brought in to face the court.

There was nothing to indicate that the Hungarian primate had been beaten or drugged, as had been charged abroad. His facial expression contained the same fixed look of religious zeal which marked his appearance before his arrest last Dec. 27.

Speaking in calm, clear tones, Cardinal Mindszenty told the five-man people's court:

"It is not my intention to mince matters. I must state that I cannot accept all of the conclusions contained in the indictment as a consequence of my activities."

"I cannot, for instance, accept the charge which alleged that I organized or led a movement to destroy the Democratic system of this state."

The court refused to separate Cardinal Mindszenty's trial from that of the other defendants or to adjourn the proceedings against him. Less than 36 hours before the opening of the trial, a statement attributed to the bench of Roman Catholic Bishops of Hungary was made public. It said the Bishops were "leaving Mindszenty's case to the wise discretion of the government."

(Various sources in Hungary and at Vatican City have hinted that the Hungarian government wants to separate the Catholic church in Hungary from Vatican control. There has been no indication, however, that such a movement was meeting with any success.)

The court, watched by the world in history's first civil trial of a prince of the Catholic church, read a letter which it said came from the Cardinal, who was present during the reading.

The letter said Cardinal Mindszenty admitted "grave errors" in his fight against a church-state understanding, promised to give the Hungarian bishops a free hand to negotiate with the government and asked that the trial be adjourned. It added that he would withdraw himself from the consideration of the trial were adjourned and that he could render good service to the Hungarian regime.

Caused a Stir
The communication, read by Presiding Judge Vilmos Olthys, who said it was addressed to Justice Minister Istvan Riesz, caused a dramatic pause almost at the very start of the trial.

Judge Olthys, a professional jurist, and his four fellow judges, retired briefly to consider the unexpected request. When they came back a few minutes later, they said the request for an adjournment had been refused and that the trial would go on.

The peoples court prosecutor Gyula Elapi opposed an adjournment.

Foregoes Title of Prince
Walking quietly, he took his place in the dock foregoing his usual title of Prince, he answered "Archbishop of Esztergom, Cardinal and Primate," when asked for his personal title.

The government read the indictment, accusing the Cardinal of "leading an organization which aimed to overthrow the democratic order of the state with treason and with speculation in foreign currency."

It accused him of royalist activities on behalf of the pretender, Archduke Otto of Hapsburg, and of maintaining "subversive connections with Tibor Eckhardt, Hungarian political adventurer in the United States."

The government announced in December that Cardinal Mindszenty had confessed his guilt to all these charges.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3.—(AP)—Postmaster General Jesse M. Donaldson today appointed Alex F. Sachs as acting postmaster at Kansas City, Mo.

Sachs will succeed the late Alexander W. Graham, who died recently. He will serve pending a civil service appointment by President Truman.

Totalling all points made in eight games played this season, not counting the pre-conference tournament held three days last December, the Tigers have tallied 419 points against 325 points tallied by the eight teams the Tigers either lost or won to.

$200 Storage On Once Hitler Car

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Feb. 3.—(AP)—A black, bullet-proof convertible sedan used by Adolf Hitler in his heyday was located today in a Syracuse garage, where its American sponsors "mislaid" it last summer.

There was a $200 storage bill. The big Mercedes Benz was found at Ryan Bros. Storage Corp. Garage. Detective Sgt. Arthur Casey said it had been left there last July by two American promoters who were sponsoring exhibitions to raise funds for French orphans.

Police tracked down the automobile at the request of Shults and Shults, a Hornell, N. Y., law firm. John Bradley, a representative of Shults and Shults, said his firm had been retained by an Englishman to locate the sedan. He told police his client had leased it to the promoters.

The names of the Englishman and the American exhibitors were not disclosed.

Bradley told police he had contacted the promoters and they reported they had lost the claim check after placing the sedan in storage. They said they thought the garage was owned by people named "Rhine."

The Hitler sedan, which has a 100-gallon gasoline tank, was seized by a group of American soldiers at Berchtesgaden, Germany, and later was turned over to Gen. Charles De Gaulle. The general gave it to the French War Orphans Association.

Bradley said the association leased it to the Englishman who in turn leased it to the American promoters to raise funds for French orphans.
